

how to draw a dragon

a coloring book poem by sue clancy

how to draw a
dragon...

...First you
ask politely...

...then you
run away

you show your
art examples
you let her
have her say

ROAR!

you reply "shouting's
not permitted, there's simply just no way and
it won't begin to do..."
then you run, real
quick, away

you offer tea and cookies on a bright and sunny day you flatter her, you soothe her, you hint that it just may...

sigh...

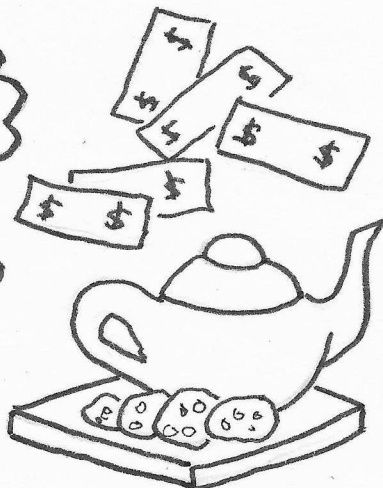

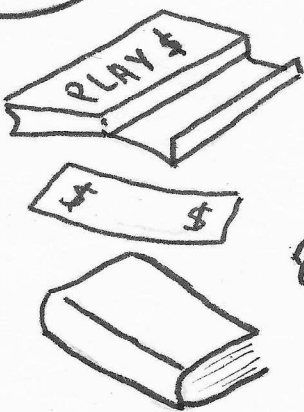

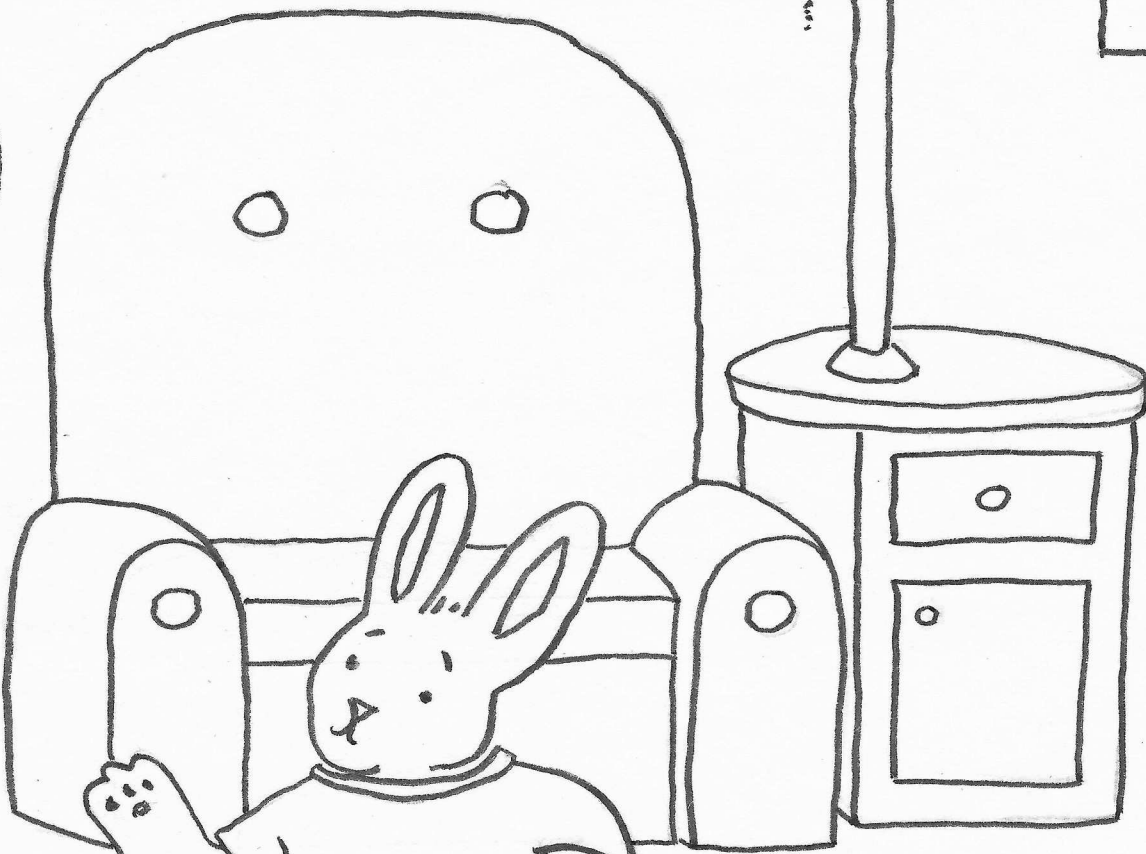

...be possible to increase
her amount of pay
you'll be here till she's happy till then you're
here to stay

but she growls
and she snaps
her temper begins to fray
you run, you jump
you hide ...

... behind a vase by Jenny May OOPS! you left behind your color book
the one you got
from Momma Rae...

... she picks it up
she opens it with
a page she
starts to
play...

oh!

...she pulls out color samples the gold, the blue, the grey she imagines
herself in
crimson and
then she says...

...make me a star she says
then we'll have a
cream
soufflé!

directions :

1. color first
2. cut along dotted lines
3. tape ends together to form a crown (adjust to fit head)

use extra star
paper strips as
needed

directions :

1. color first
2. cut along dotted lines
3. tape ends together to form a crown
(adjust to fit head)

use extra star
paper strips as
needed

how do you draw a
grumpy dragon?
this coloring book
poem illustrated
and written by the
artist sue clancy
shows you how.

